

The State of the Student Group

John Brown

Muslim Student Association

Run by a true student leader, Salahudin Ali, the MSA not only serves the hundreds of Muslim students on campus, but also the downtown community. Ali and his group host the only permanent prayer room in the surrounding area where followers of Muhammad can kick off their shoes, face east, and pray. A recent basketball tournament they hosted brought in almost 600 people, making it a huge event on a campus littered with poorly attended events.
